

Warm Greetings Judge La Dous Cordell,

DD. SUP. *16 APR 6 AM 10:17

My name is [redacted] and I'm from San Francisco here in this county on a probation violation due to not reporting. In my county for the every same charges the judge terminated my probation unsuccessfully, here in this county the judge ask for 16 months in prisons. As I ponder in the depth of my soul for the reason of these things all I see is racism, discrimination, and corruption - exploitation of the poor!

I love God and care about people so there is no way I could stand by while the poor suffer. my name sake once said "injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere" and is why we came up with a list of prisoners demands, and using word of my as a tactic for all prisoners asking for a Change of Venue in that its humanly impossible to get a fair trail for people of color.

Honorable Judge Cordell I follow my spirit in all that I do, you can ask the Honorable Willie Lewis Brown Jr., Governor Jerry Brown about the man behind this pen. I stand for Freedom and Justice and my spirit has led me to you! sincerely in strength [redacted]
